Rosslyn Analytics Identifies Navigant Consulting Global Cost Savings Through New Spend Analysis Software

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Rosslyn Analytics, a leading data analytics and cost optimisation company, has been engaged by Navigant Consulting to identify savings in Procurement through Strategic Sourcing. Using RA.Pid®, Rosslyn Analytics Spend Analytics and Business Intelligence tool, Navigant is able to analyze data down to line item detail and identify detailed cost savings strategies for its procurement group.

Charles Clark, CEO of Rosslyn Consulting, said:

"Our flagship product RA.Pid® can analyse data down to line item detail and identify valuable cost savings. With the credit crunch affecting businesses worldwide, this contract is an important win because it will give Navigant Consulting a transformational capability to address cost reduction opportunities and minimise expenditure. RA.Pid® is especially valuable to companies with multiple divisions or business units."

Director of Global Procurement for Navigant Consulting, Sue Miller, said:

"Being able to categorize all-spend data and check compliance using Contract Management within the RA.Pid® tool is critical to the success of our sourcing programs."

About Rosslyn Analytics

Rosslyn Analytics Ltd. is a leading supplier of business intelligence(BI) solutions and cost reduction services, specializing in "procure to pay" global spend analysis.

Rosslyn Analytics was formed in 2005 and turns over more than £2m a year

Rosslyn Analytics' flagship product is RA.Pid®, a spend visibility and business intelligence platform ,ahead of other solutions through its:

- Ability to provide web-based open architecture with minimal effect (only network access and data extraction) on IT or existing ERP platforms
- Capacity to access multiple disparate data sources and integrate them within one application. In addition, this feature allows for a dynamic environment capable of responding quickly to any change in data source
- RA.Pid® can detail analyses in a comprehensive three dimensional format. The data produced can be easily benchmarked against other savings and efficiency projects

Rosslyn Analytics has won contracts with Capita, RioTinto, Maersk and ITV.
